About June McKenzie, Independent Social Worker

I have over 26 years experience in Social Work having qualified in 1987, specialising in children and families work. In 2000 I achieved a Masters in Social Work Management. I have subsequently worked in social services department throughout the UK specialising in Child Protection Assessments at both practitioner and managerial level.

I have extensive experience of preparing and presenting reports and giving evidence in the Magistrates, County and High Courts. I have worked independently preparing assessments and reports for various local authorities.

I have extensive experience of working within social services departments and voluntary agencies; these include managing social workers and managing services which provide protection to children. These services include: Mother and Baby Residential Unit, Fostering and Adoption, Duty and Assessment, Safeguarding (IRO/ Child Protection Chair) and Quality Assurance.

In terms of 'Assessment' work I am able to assess 'risk' in relation to parents ability to protect, to meet their child/rens emotional and physical needs and assess parents' capacity to change. I am able to achieve positive outcomes through direct work with parents.

I have undertaken independent assessments on behalf of Birmingham City Council, Walsall MBC and Solihull MBC. I have also assessed Contact between parents on behalf of the same authorities.

In terms of wider areas of work I am able to undertake Viability Assessments, Form F Assessment, Special Guardianship Assessments and Risk Assessments.
